Commissioners Bowers and Richardson moved to give the Chief permission to interview 4 with the expectation that next month he would come to the board with up to 3 names for hiring consideration. Motion unanimously carried.

E255 suffered some minor damage to a driver's side mirror while traveling to and from the event at URMC.

E254 will be going out to Churchville when the parts come in to fix the body work which is needed from the incident at Unity.

Capt Howcraft and the Deputy are working on some grants.

The Contract for Turnout Express has been signed by the Chairman.

Vector Solutions contract comes up for review in March.

Workfit's contract has been signed by the Chairman

During the Christmas storm between the 23 - 27th we had over 160 incidents. On the 24th, we sent E254 to Orleans county to assist with storm cleanup. On Dec 26 - 29th we sent a pickup 3 FFs, equipment and an officer to Buffalo to assist with storm cleanup. The County Executive presented a plaque to the district for our efforts.

The Chief updated the board on the district sponsoring a FF#1 class in-house. This normally is taught at the County Facility. This will be taught by BC Quill.

DEPUTY CHIEF'S REPORT

The Deputy reported the Annual OSHA on duty injury report has been submitted. The Safety Committee has investigated each of the reported cases and made recommendations to prevent them from recurring.

The turnout gear contract this past year has paid for itself by the vendor giving us recommendations on changes that will prevent many of the repairs we have encountered during the past year.

We just received a request for proposal from the county, to submit for grant monies under the American Rescue Plan. He has been combing through all the paperwork. More to come in the near future.

Lieut. Howcraft is working on the AFG grant paperwork.

OLD BUSINESS

Commissioner Stoerger updated the board on the Stoneridge project. He will email the estimated cost paperwork from Bergmann. The Chief is looking at pluses and minuses of another proposal. The Chairman has asked the Treasurer to put together a ballpark figure on the impacts to the future budgets. The Chief will check with West Webster and Spencerport to gain knowledge on the next steps.

The secretary sent out the Procurement and Financial Management policies to everyone for review.

Motion made by Commissioners Stoerger to adopt the revised procurement policy, 2nd by Commissioner Richardson, Motion unanimously carried.

Motion made by Commissioners Bowers to adopt the revised financial management policy, 2nd by Commissioner Stoerger, Motion unanimously carried.

The Chairman updated the board on what is happening with the grant on the consolidation study.

NEW BUSINESS

Commissioner Bowers received the Training for travel in January/February. Motion to approve the training, Commissioner Stoerger, 2nd Commissioner Hayes, unanimously carried. {See Attachment F}

Some discussion around Tom Kirchoff's salary took place, afterwards the board moved as follows,

Motion made by Commissioners Stoerger, 2nd by Commissioner Bowers to increase his pay to $38.15, Motion unanimously carried

The Secretary discussed the conflict with Commissioner Messbauer on future meeting dates for the board after having moved it to Tuesdays. It was felt that we could continue to use Mondays as we had last year with a few changes. Next month it will remain on Tuesday the 21st because moving it to Monday wouldn't change his ability to attend. Secretary Bowers to send out the new dates and redo the notice to the paper.

The dates will be March 13th, April 17th, May 15th, June 19th, July 17th, August 21st, Sept 18th, Budget Hearing and Meeting Oct 17th, November 20th, and Commission election and Meeting December 12th.
